Putnam Case June 8. Putnam Case June 8.

There were no new matters on the short calendar list. Upon request of Acting State's Attorney E. Frank Bugbee, Judge Reed fixed June 8 in this city as the date for the trial of the case of Fred Wood of Putnam, charged with receiving stolen goods that are alleged to have been taken from the Bradley residence in Pomfret. Judge Reed ordered a new jury to be summoned to sit on the case, the present one being excused until June 15, when court will go to Putnam.

Next Week's Assignments. The first case to be held next Tu day, when court comes in here, is that of Lester H. Burnham vs. Frank H. Deming: the next is George C. Top-Deming: the next is George C. Topliff's appeal from probate. The case

Another Delay in Ross Estate Case A strong endeavor was made by At-torney King, who represents Mrs. Wiltorney King, who represents Mrs. William Ross, the executrix of the estate of her husband, to have the James M. Grant appeal from probate assigned for trial. Mr. King said that he did not like to ask for an early trial, realizing that Attorney Capen, who appears with Attorney Hunter for the opposition, was ill and had been for a number of weeks, but said that he very much desired to have the case tried at this term, as two of the principal witnesses, who are Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Clark, would be obliged to leave for Alaska early in September, leave for Alaska early in September, Mr. Clark having been appointed gov-ernor of that territory, and their evi-dence in the cast was most important.

Attorney Hunter stated that Mr. Capen is senior counsel in the case and was unable to go on with it, saying that while he was present in court but in no condition to work, and had not been for some time. Judge Reed asked Mr. Capen if he hought he could take up the matter within three weeks and the latter replied that his physician told him that he must not do anything for at least four weeks.

G. A. Haskell has sold his farm to Wayland Frink. There is a valuable transerry bog included in its acreage, from which Mr. Haskell, who has owned the property over twenty years, has marketed several thousand bushels of the finest berties.
